PROFILE

I am a B.Tech student at the Future Institute of Engineering and Management, specializing in Computer Science and Engineering with a focus on Data Science. I have a solid foundation in programming, ranging from beginner to intermediate levels, and possess basic knowledge of Data Structures and Algorithms. I completed my schooling at Kendriya Vidyalaya Panagarh, securing 75% in 10th grade and 83% in 12th grade CBSE examinations. I am enthusiastic about leveraging my skills and knowledge to solve real-world problems and contribute to the field of data science. I am constantly seeking opportunities to learn, grow, and collaborate with like-minded individuals.
